Introducing 3 Takurua Rise

Located in Peacocke, this striking two-storey home brings modern living to one of Hamilton's fastest-growing neighbourhoods. Four bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a single garage sit across 228m² of floor space, ideal for families wanting room to grow near the Waikato River.

The heart of the home is an open-plan kitchen, dining, and living space that flows to a rear patio for outdoor entertaining. A designer kitchen with stone tops, a scullery, and Bosch appliances anchors the space, while a ground-floor master suite adds an ensuite, storage, and its own patio.

Upstairs sit three further bedrooms and a full bathroom, each fitted with built-in wardrobes. A thermally insulated garage door, digital door lock, and built-in laundry complete the package, set on a 405m² section in the riverside community of Peacocke.

Living in Peacocke

Peacocke is one of Hamilton's fastest-growing neighbourhoods, planned with families and future-focused living in mind. Set along the banks of the Waikato River, the area weaves natural surrounds together with modern infrastructure, from parks and walkways to upcoming retail and transport links.

Day to day, residents enjoy green open space, riverside trails, and room for children to play, all within a newly developed part of the city. New schools and community facilities are taking shape as the neighbourhood grows, adding to its long-term appeal for young families.

With Hamilton's CBD only a short drive away, Peacocke balances easy urban access with a peaceful, leafy setting. A planned southern link and ongoing investment across the suburb make it a smart choice for buyers seeking space, connection, and lasting value.
