Introducing 5 Rongoa Maori Way

This stunning two-storey home blends modern design with everyday function. The exterior pairs wood panelling with brick, and large windows draw natural light into a double-height entry that sets the tone for the whole home.

The left wing holds the kitchen and a separate dining room, sitting between two living areas that both open to patio spaces for easy indoor-outdoor flow. A contemporary kitchen anchors the heart of the home, with a white island bench and elegant dark cabinetry.

The master suite sits privately in its own ground-floor wing, joined by a large laundry and a double garage. Upstairs, three further bedrooms and a bathroom give family and guests room to spread out, all set in the sought-after Reynolds Green subdivision on a 539m² section.

Living in Pukekohe

Pukekohe is one of Franklin's most established towns, offering a relaxed pace with genuine convenience. The Reynolds Green subdivision places you within easy reach of the town centre, where supermarkets, cafes, and independent shops keep daily errands simple.

Outdoor life is well catered for, with parks, sports grounds, and walking tracks nearby, plus golf courses and the wider Franklin countryside on the doorstep. The town has a warm, community-minded feel that suits families settling in for the long term.

Getting around is easy, with regular trains and motorway links carrying commuters north to Auckland. A full range of schools, from primary through to secondary, sits close by, making this a smart choice for growing households.
